

Skagit Valley Provincial Park

North Cascades National Park Service Complex

Interpretive Ranger Programs

Friday

9 pm Evening Program– JD Ross; the Man, the Myth, the Legend

Where: International Point Amphitheatre

Come one, come all! One night only, hear the greatest Canadian-American tale never told. There will be mystery, there will be intrigue, adventure will abound. Tonight you will see with your own eyes and hear with your own ears stories beyond your wildest imaginings!

Saturday

10 am Jerry's Ranger/Junior Ranger Program – For the Birds

Where: International Point Amphitheatre, 45-minute program

Birds are some of the easiest animals to observe in the parks – in fact, we've got some residents right at the amphitheater. Come gain a new appreciation for our feathered friends.

4 pm Nature Talk – Goat Notes

Where: Winnebago Flats camping area (North Cascades NP)

Mountain goats are a symbol of the rugged terrain of the North Cascade Mountains. Their ability to thrive in such a landscape is evidence of remarkable adaptations. Join the rangers for insight into what makes these ungulates so well adapted to these mountains

8 pm Evening Program – Forests, Fungi, and Flying Squirrels

Where: International Point Amphitheatre

Come join a special guest presentation by Hope Mountain Centre for Outdoor Learning to learn about the amazing flying squirrel and the secret connections that tie it to the health of the forest, owls and even you.

Sunday

10 am Jerry's Ranger/Junior Ranger Program – Animal Communications

Where: International Point Amphitheatre, 45-minute program

Have you listened to the birds singing in the woods or to the frogs calling at night? What are they saying to each other and how else do animals communicate? Join the rangers to learn some “animal talk” and try your hand at communicating the way some animals do.

1 pm Nature Talk – Wolverines: Trash Talk

Where: Winnebago Flats camping area (North Cascades NP)

Pack it in, pack it out, and don't burn it in the fire... Why are we so concerned with where your garbage ends up? Join the rangers for a challenging talk about trash, how long it sticks around and whether or not it really is trash. Bring your chairs.

8 pm Video – “Return to Wildness”

Where: International Point Amphitheatre

Join the rangers for a viewing of “Return to Wildness.” This 25-minute long video displays awe-inspiring scenery of the North Cascades and the inspiration of wilderness.